FELL BETWEEN GALLOPING TEAM

Farmer Slips from Wagon Tongue and is Caught by Heavy Wheel of Big Conveyance. Scalp Torn.

Falling between two large horses, escaping the front wheels of a heavy farm wagon, only to be caught by the rear wheels of the same conveyance, Rolandus Wildasin, a well known farmer living between Littlestown and Silver Run, received painful injuries and had a narrow escape from death. The accident occurred on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Wildasin had helped to haul a "flitter" from a farm near Silver Run to Littlestown and he was on his way home with a five horse team when the mishap occurred. The wagon was empty and, when he started out on the new state road, the horses began to gallop and were soon beyond control. Mr. Wildasin was riding on a saddle horse and he tried to get back into the wagon in order to pull on the brake.

When he stepped to the tongue of the wagon he missed his footing and fell down between the galloping horses and within an inch or two of the front wheel. The rear wheel caught his head but did not run over it. Fortunately the horses were stopped by some men who happened along at the time and Mr. Wildasin was taken out from his perilous position. He was unconscious.

Dr. Gettler was summoned from Littlestown and found that the scalp had been torn loose at the back of the head, from the neck to the top of the head, that there was a dent in the skull above the left eye, and that the skin had been scraped from the left side of his face, as he was dragged over the rough surface of the pike.

The man regained consciousness after a short time and was taken home after his injuries were dressed. He is about 45 years old. Two little boys who were in the wagon at the time of the accident escaped unhurt.

BUSINESS RUSH AT ITS HEIGHT

April First Transactions will Compose as Large a Volume as in Any Preceding Year. Avoid the Last Hour Rush.

The annual settlement day is at hand. Banks, court house quarters, attorneys' offices, the stores, and streets of town give every evidence of the occasion. April first and the few days preceding will make a record fully up to those of former years.

The men who have charge of the hundreds of business transactions which are always to be cleared up at this time of the year, have been leading up to the last hour rush for the past week. Urging the town and country folk to do their business a few days ahead of time, in order to avoid the final congestion and confusion, has done some good and a portion of the business has been cleared up, but the greater bulk of it yet remains.

Late hours have been kept in all the banks, while attorneys have had their hands full in order to have everything in shape for Saturday. The court house offices have special deputies working in order to keep up with the business, and so that there may be no unnecessary delay at the last minute.

The business being done in this manner is reflected in the stores of town, and the women are attending to their spring shopping while the men are engaged in their "department" of the family finances.

The last hour "flitters" are having their innings and town streets and country roads have dozens of the caravans. Some improvement in the highways has been noted the past few days but they are still in a deplorable condition at many places.

SHORTEN JOURNEY

Constant Progress in "Route Efficiency" of Transcontinental Highway.

Ever since the route of the Lincoln Highway was first proclaimed to the people of the United States by the Lincoln Highway Association, in September, 1913, and the work of promoting and procuring the establishment of a continuous, improved highway from the Atlantic to the Pacific, thereby started, it has been one of the chief aims and ideals of the Association to shorten continually the distance between the two coasts, and by securing a more efficient route across each state and county, eventually arrive at the final shortest and best road between New York and San Francisco.

The route of 100 per cent efficiency between New York and San Francisco would be about 2,800 miles, and toward this ideal road the Association's efforts have been constantly directed, with the result that the original mileage of 3,184 miles has been cut down to very nearly 3,300 miles, with the aid of the people and the state highway departments of the states traversed, and of the local authorities in each county, township and municipality.

CLEAR $80 WITH HIGH SCHOOL PLAY

Seniors Entertain Full House with Bright Comedy. Well Drilled Cast Gives Exceptionally Good Play.

Each succeeding year the audiences at the annual High School Seniors' play declare it better than ever before. Thursday night's offering was no exception. For two hours the young people of the graduating class entertained most delightfully a capacity house with "The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown".

The substantial sum of $80 was cleared. This will be used to purchase a gift for the school, and also to meet some of the expenses always necessary in connection with the arrangements for the commencement exercises in May.

The efforts of "Captain Courtenay" to secure his youthful bride of a few hours from a girls' boarding school, in which she was held, furnish the incidents of the plot, the new-made husband securing entrance in the disguise of a new pupil. There is ample opportunity for fun, and the girls and boys were not slow to make the most of it.

Harry Hartzell was exceptionally good as the husband, especially during the time he was the shy girl pupil; Nannie Rudisill, as the bride, was all that could have been desired; while Margaret Stewart, who conducted the school, showed her concern for the welfare of her pupils in highly approved fashion. These three "leads" were capably assisted by Percy Armour and Ruth Fisel, uncle and aunt of the bride; by Harry Poth, a solicitor; Paul Lower, the music master at the school; by Lloyd Sharetts and Paul Spangler, the sergeants, and by all the others who took part in the play.

An enjoyable surprise was the singing of "The Borey Man" by Miss Helen Pfeffer and the other girls of the class, all in costumes and with candles.

TOOK HIS LIFE

A few minutes after he went to his room Wednesday a shot was heard, and the proprietor, with a number of guests, went to the room and found the door locked. Breaking into the room, they found Hall lying on the bed, his hat pulled over his face and a revolver in his right hand. He had fired the bullet into his mouth. He has one brother, Harry Hall, at White Marsh, Baltimore county.

CIGAR MAKERS ARE WORRIED

Advance in Prices may Cause Trouble for Smaller Factories in the Lower End of the County. The Conditions.

Cigar manufacturers here and in the lower portion of the county, where the business is carried on more extensively, say that the advance in the price of tobacco both for wrapper and filler form, caused by the great amount of the weed exported to the warring countries in Europe, will be the cause eventually of forcing a number of the smaller cigar manufacturers out of business, or the temporary closing of their plants.

This is especially true of the cheaper grade cigar manufacturing plants, where the two and three for five cent cigars are made. The profit in the enterprise for the latter manufacturers is so small that, should the weed continue to soar in price, they will be unable to operate their factories on a profitable basis.

The manufacturers of the five cent and higher grade cigars, although feeling the effects of the increase in the raw materials, can still operate on a paying basis. Should the operators of the cigar factories making the cheaper grade cigars make a demand for higher prices for their product, the retailer would refuse their cigars and the trade would be lost. Notwithstanding the increased price the manufacturers are obliged to pay for the raw materials, they are unable to obtain higher prices for their product.

Since the beginning of the war dealers have been scouring the tobacco growing sections, especially in York and Lancaster counties, offering high prices and purchasing all the tobacco possible. It is claimed that several million pounds of York county tobacco have been bought and will be shipped to Europe this summer. The large purchases made by the agents for the foreign manufacturers has caused a scarcity and, as a result, the price is continuing to soar.

Traction Engines May Use Cleats on Roads in Maryland.

Adams County owners of traction engines will be interested to know that litigation between the Maryland State Roads Commission and the owners of traction engines will be ended by the bill which passed to its third reading in the House of Maryland Assembly and provides that engines with cleated wheels may be operated on State roads. The bill was introduced by Delegate Blanford and was reported unfavorably by the Ways and Means Committee. The bill was substituted for the unfavorable report. It is expected that a hot fight will center about the measure when it is brought up for final passage in the House but the indications are that the bill will pass by a good vote.

Plank climbed out in his nightgown and ran down the bandit, capturing him without assistance. The town blacksmith is making Eddie an iron cross."

VILLA'S VICTIM NEARLY KILLS HIM

Mexican Almost Throttles His Torturer.

WAS BEATEN SENSELESS

Bandit Put Five of Family to Death and Left Mother One Son—Said to be Wounded.

Field Headquarters, Mexican Expeditionary Forces, Colonia Dublan, Chihuahua, March 26 (By Motor Truck to Columbus, N. M., March 31)—It has been learned that Francisco Villa nearly lost his life a few days ago on the Corralitos ranch, a short distance from this place, where he tortured and put to death five Mexicans.

One of his victims leaped upon him and was strangling Villa when officers beat his assailant senseless with the butts of their guns.

Mucio Polanco was the name of the Mexican who almost succeeded in ending Villa's career.

The murder of the five members of the Polanco family was said to have been intended as a warning to other Mexicans against having dealings with Americans. Investigation showed that the Polanco family was involved with no political faction in Mexico, but that they had a record of uniform honesty and reliability in dealing with the American managers of the Corralitos ranch, where they were born.

When Villa, retreating from Columbus, arrived at the ranch, he had a list of all the Polancos, six men, the mother and two daughters. He seized the men and hunted for the daughters, but the young women had been hidden so well that he never found them.

To five of the men, Gregorio and his two sons, and Mucio and his one son, Villa said:

"I am going to kill you because you are too Americanized. You are Gringo lovers."

But instead of killing them outright, Villa had them partly stripped and then beaten with the flats of heavy swords. Mucio Polanco broke away from his captors and got one hand locked about Villa's throat before he was beaten off.

Next Villa ordered the five stood up beneath a huge archway, where he told them he would hang them. Ropes were placed about their necks and they were jerked into the air, but not permitted to die. Just when loss of consciousness approached they were lowered to earth with demands that they reveal the hiding places of horses said to have been hidden about the ranch. There were no horses, so far as investigation has disclosed.

The prisoners also were offered their lives if they would tell where money was hidden or point out valuable documents.

After several mock hangings, Villa ordered the five men taken into the garden, where each one was shot five times.

Before going, Villa led one male member of the family, Gregorio, Jr., aged twenty-one, back to the young man's mother, and said to her: "I am going to leave you this one son to support you. You ought to thank me for leaving him."

Villa is Reported Wounded.

El Paso, March 31.—While military men here openly expressed an opinion that Francisco Villa had slipped through the cordon of American troops and Carranza forces pursuing him in Mexico, and his exact whereabouts was unknown at the border, the bandit was reported in an unconfirmed dispatch to be wounded, but still in flight.

The latest theory concerning the movement of Villa and his outlaws, was to the effect they were moving through the Santa Maria valley, and that once among his peon friends, who probably would mislead the Americans, Villa might escape detection a long time.

General Gavira, in Juarez, said he had received a message from Madero, Mexico, reporting Villa has been shot in the leg. Gavira wired General Bernal at Madera for confirmation.

VILLA GETTING AID FROM U. S.

Department of Justice Can Prove Assistance to Bandit, is Believed.

Washington, March 31.—Department of justice agents have uncovered evidence in New York and other cities which, they believe, when fully developed, will justify the charge that Villa has received assistance from sources in the United States.

The allegation that Villa has received aid from German sources also is being investigated, but no indication has been given as to whether evidence has been found.

The department is disinclined to act on its evidence that American money and supplies have gone to Villa, while it is in the stage that will involve only subordinates. It intends to pursue the trail, if possible, to "men higher up."

Aviator Sights Villa Band.

Field Headquarters, by wireless to Columbus, N. M., March 31.—An army aviator, in a daring flight through mountain air cross currents lasting seven hours in freezing cold, without alighting, has penetrated to continental divide, 250 miles beyond here, and has sighted an armed body of 500 men, supposed to be Villistas.

GERMANS CUT DOWN BY THE THOUSAND

Almost Entire Division Wiped Out by French.

London, March 31.—Repeated counter attacks in which the Germans suffered heavy losses were made by the Kaiser's troops in Avocourt wood on the northwestern front of Verdun.

The statement issued by the French war office said heads of bodies were left on the battlefield by the Germans.

All the attacks, which were launched for the purpose of driving the French from their newly captured position in the southeastern part of Avocourt wood were complete failures, it is stated. The war office said the Germans did not renew their attack against Malancourt. East of the Meuse there was heavy artillery fighting.

The repulse of repeated attacks by the French in efforts to recapture positions they had lost in the wood northwest of Avocourt is announced by the German army headquarters staff in Berlin.

Nearly an entire division (12,000 men) was wiped out by French machine guns and "seventy-five's" when the Germans attacked the positions, says a Paris despatch.

The fighting around Avocourt forest and the village of Malancourt is described as extremely bloody. From three to seven waves of German infantry surged toward the French trenches. At least 30,000 men were in the attacking forces. These were mostly drawn from the Bavarian army and the Fifteenth Reserve Army Corps. The German losses were placed at 15,000 altogether in this fight.

The Germans did not get a chance to engage the French in hand-to-hand fighting as the ranks were swept away by the terrific fire from the French machine guns and three-inch batteries of artillery before they reached the trenches.

So severe was the German losses in this battle that, when the French suddenly attacked their lines a couple of miles farther south, the Teutons were caught napping and were driven from their positions. One thousand fresh troops tried to win back the lost ground, but failed.

GADSKI'S HUSBAND ACCUSED

Captain Tauscher Arrested in Plot Against Welland Canal.

New York, March 31.—Captain Hans Tauscher, husband of Johanna Gadski, the opera singer, and said to be an officer in the German navy, was arrested by special agents of the department of justice, accused of being concerned in the alleged conspiracy to blow up the Welland canal in Canada.

Tauscher is head of the Tauscher Arms company and, according to federal authorities, representative of the Krupp gun works in this country. His arrest was brought about through disclosures made by Horst von der Goltz, also known as Bridgman Taylor, who was brought to this country a day or two ago to tell what he knew concerning alleged German plots.

Tauscher denied the charge and was placed under $25,000 bail for examination April 15.

40 Engulfed by Water in Mine.

Pittston, Pa., March 31.—Forty men driving a tunnel in the Butler colliery of the Pennsylvania Coal company were engulfed in water up to their necks when they drove through a wall of rock and released a body of water in an abandoned section. Superintendent George B. O'Hara was rescued unconscious, while ten others were taken out with difficulty by their fellow workmen.

ONE ISSUE OF ALL U-BOAT ATTACKS

It is Suspected Commanders Have Secret Orders.

U. S. IS SEEKING DETAILS

Prompt Action Expected if Proof of Torpedoing Ships Without Warning is Obtained.

Washington, March 31.—The United States government is using every means at its command to secure conclusive proof regarding the disaster, which have overtaken the channel steamship Sussex and other unarmed merchant ships, all carrying American citizens.

All circumstantial evidence indicates that these ships were torpedoed without warning and that German submarines have begun an underwater campaign in violation of Germany's recent assurances to the United States.

The vessel involved besides the Sussex, which, with twenty-five Americans aboard, met disaster on her voyage from Folkestone to Dieppe, Friday, are the horseship Englishman, shelled and torpedoed last week, with the loss of one American life; the steamship Manchester, Engineer board from Philadelphia to Manchester, and the steamship Eagle Point.

Walter H. Page, American Ambassador at London, forwarded a report that the British destroyer which aided in rescuing survivors of the Sussex had been fired upon twice by a submarine. Mr. Page said that his information was not official, but appeared to be authentic, and he sent the report for what it was worth to the department.

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, visited the state department and conferred for some time with the department counselor, Frank L. Polk.

The ambassador said that he had taken up with Mr. Polk only some unimportant trade matters and that the submarine situation was not touched on in any way.

"I am positively convinced," he added, "that the Sussex was sunk by striking a mine. My government is scrupulously observing in all promises made and is not violating international law."

Some officials credit the suggestion that German submarine commanders are acting under secret instructions such as were advocated by Admiral von Tirpitz, to torpedo every vessel approaching the British Isles. Although official confirmation is lacking, some officials believe that the commanders of German submarines have orders other than those of which this country is advised.

RAILROADS MAKE DEMANDS

Do Not Refuse Pleas of Employees, But Insist on Open Discussion.

New York, March 31.—Eastern railroad managers replied to the demands of nearly 400,000 locomotive engineers, firemen and trainmen for an eight-hour day and higher rates for overtime work by submitting propositions of their own for discussion.

The demands of the employees are not refused, neither is a demand made by the railroad managers for the acceptance of their own proposals. These are submitted for consideration in the negotiations that are expected to follow.

"What the railroads ask for is an open door," their reply states.

The reply was sent to the officials of the four brotherhoods immediately after the receipt of the employees' demand.

The railroad managers demand that there shall be open for discussion those provisions in present schedules of compensation which are "in conflict" with the following principles: "No double compensation for the same time or service."

"The same classifications for the purpose of compensation to be applied to all members of a train and engine crew."

"Two or more differently paid classes of service performed in the same day or trip to be paid proportionate rates according to the class of service with not less than a minimum day for the combined service."

Steal $2,500,000 in Paintings.

Perugia, Italy, March 31.—Thieves who looted the sacristy of St. Peter's Basilica escaped with paintings and panels valued at more than $2,500,000, according to Signor Ricci, government director of fine arts. Among the paintings stolen were two by Raphael, "The Infant Jesus" and "The Infant John the Baptist." Both these pictures were stolen several years ago, but were subsequently recovered.

22,000 Serbs Succumb in Flight.

Berne, March 31.—Of 30,000 Serbian refugees who, following the invasion of their country by the Teutonic allies, headed southward, only 8000 succeeded in reaching Salonika, all the others having perished of cold and hunger on the way, according to a report just received from Mlle. Comte, of Geneva, representative at Salonika of the Swiss Red Cross.

6 KNOWN DEAD IN MINE EXPLOSION

Superintendent Among Men Cut Off in Workings.

Johnstown, Pa., March 31.—Six men are known to have been killed and at least two others are missing as a result of an explosion of gas in the Red Incline mine of the Conemaugh-Smoethless Coal company, at Seward, eight miles west of here.

Ten hours after the blast, six charred bodies were recovered and hope for the safety of the others known to have been in the mine was abandoned. The dead included John Waddell, superintendent of the mine; H. H. Yorum, electrician; George Watson, a motorman, and three aliens. Thomas Hoover, a carman, and Joe Polad, a miner, are missing.

The rescuers encountered large quantities of water, a spring having been opened by the explosion. The pumps were started, and soon made some headway. Although the lower parts of the mine were flooded, the water did not reach the section where the men were entombed.

Working carefully, the rescuers penetrated the mine for a distance of 2000 feet, but because of the smoke and gas were unable to locate the men. The mine has not been operating to capacity, which accounts for the small number of miners at work when the explosion occurred.

SEEK TO KILL OFF BOOM FOR HUGHES

Certain Leaders Want Him to Declare Himself.

MANY PREFER ROOSEVELT.

President Wilson, Like His Predecessor, Has an Ananias Club—Rights and Wrongs of Poor Lo Discussed in Senate in Discussion of Indian Appropriation Bill.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, March 31.—[Special.]—Republican leaders who are shaping up the presidential situation—or trying to—want something definite from Justice Hughes, and they are considering methods to ascertain just what his attitude will be in regard to a nomination.

"We can't go ahead and nominate a man who may refuse it," they say. "That would give the campaign a black eye from the start. Hughes ought to say definitely that he will not accept the nomination even if it is offered to him. That would stop the selection of Hughes delegates that has been going on."

The men who talk this way are the men who do not want Hughes nominated. They want him forced out of the race before too many delegates are elected who are committed to him.

Many Prefer Roosevelt.

As a matter of fact, many Republican leaders, even those who have fought Roosevelt most bitterly, prefer the colonel to Hughes. No one supposes Bill Barnes will go that far, but there are men in New York and other states who say that they "can do business" with Roosevelt, but are doubtful about "doing business" with Hughes.

This means that they would know just what to expect from Roosevelt, but they are doubtful whether they would be able to get near Hughes if he were in the White House.

Most of the political information regarding Hughes comes to Republicans from those members of the party who remember him as governor of New York and are not disposed to give him a very high recommendation.

A Club of His Own.

President Wilson has an Ananias club of his own. He is different from Roosevelt in that he does not boldly name the men who are kicked into the club, but he evidently has a list that would be interesting. When he said he obtained most of his information regarding Mexico from taking the opposite view from that furnished by many flares he began accumulating his club. Since the present Mexican affair started he has added to the list with rapidity.

If Roosevelt should return to the White House he would find a rival or similar organization to his own, but one fully as large.

Stone's Philosophy.

It was just after one of those tilts that frequently occur between Senators Stone of Missouri and Borah of Idaho that the Missouri senator delivered the following:

"When a man becomes obsessed with the idea that he is running for president he is all too apt to be influenced by some vain delusion and is likewise apt to think he promotes one vain delusion by exploiting another."

Now, that was not aimed at Borah only in a general way. The target was really Senator Sherman of Illinois, whose activities in regard to Mexico have been annoying to the Democratic administration and the leaders in the senate. Besides, Sherman is an actual candidate for the presidency, and Borah has made it plain that he has no such ambitions.

Again the Platform.

Even on the Indian appropriation a question arose as to whether the Democratic national platform was being carried out. The question was raised about the retention of the public domain in such large reservations. Gallinger of New Hampshire asserted that there ought to be some declaration in the Democratic platform on the subject, and Shafroth of Colorado, a Democrat, showed that there was such a declaration, but it had not been carried out.

Friend of the Indian.

The red man is "Poor Lo" in the mind of Senator Lane of Oregon. He never misses an opportunity to come to the defense of Poor Lo during the consideration of the Indian appropriation bill, and he often criticizes the white men for encroaching upon the Indian lands and the tendency of the whites to take the money of the Indians. Lane has had a great deal of experience in the Indian country.

Indiana Methods.

A point of order was made against a provision in the Indian appropriation bill, and after considerable argument Senator Chapp of Minnesota asked that the ruling of the vice president be postponed until the next day.

"The chair will withhold the ruling until tomorrow," remarked Vice President Marshall; "but, like the Indiana justice who said he would not rule until Monday morning, although he would lay $5 that a certain man was beaten in the case, the chair is of the opinion that the point of order will be sustained."

Hepsey—"That boy of ours seems mighty fond of tendin' to other folks' business." Hiram—"Guess we'll hev to make a lawyer of him. Then he'll git paid for doin' it."—Boston Transcript.

Wisdom in Gotham Schools.

Here is an example of the wisdom which is imparted to the pupils of New York's public schools by a woman teacher. In explaining how the Kill von Kull was named, she told the class that a man went out gunning for sea gulls. He killed one on the stream that borders Staten Island and thereafter the stream was known as Kill von Kull. This is not a fanciful tale, but an absolutely truthful recital of the kind of "education" imparted in the "fads and fancies schools" here.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Celebrating the hundredth anniversary of its founding, the American Bible society has announced that during its existence it has distributed a total of 199,926,214 copies of Scripture in this and many foreign lands. The society was organized for the purpose of keeping the price of a Bible within reach of the poor to secure as wide distribution as possible. Similar societies have been organized in many of the nations of Europe.

Portions of the Scriptures have been printed in about 500 different dialects and languages. The entire Bible has been printed in a hundred different translations. It has been sent to every nook and corner of the world, and the work is growing each year.

A people which has not the Bible in its own language cannot have Sunday schools for Bible study. On the other hand, any community which reads the Bible is sure to have a Bible Sunday school. Every separate version of the Scriptures becomes thus a door of opportunity to the Sunday school enterprise, for it is a breach in the walls of Satan.

Thousands of Sunday schools in the United States, in Asia, in Africa and in the islands of the great, silent ocean owe their existence and their prosperity to the fact that the Bible has been translated into their native language.

The Bible societies of the world are counted by thousands, but so far as can be learned the most of these societies, as well as the home and foreign missionary societies of all Christendom, obtain the Scriptures, which are the essential implement of their work, from less than thirty Bible societies in Europe and America which print the Scriptures.

In 1914 the whole number of volumes issued by those societies which print was probably over 28,000,000. Of this number it is estimated that fully 27,000,000 were put into circulation.

Over five-sixths of this number—that is to say, 19,239,933 volumes—are issued by three English speaking societies—the British and Foreign Bible society (10,162,000), the American Bible society (6,396,323), and the Scottish National Bible society (2,762,616). The issues of these three societies include nearly the whole of the Scriptures used by the missions and Sunday schools in Asia, Africa and the islands of the Pacific ocean besides a great part of those distributed by the Sunday school unions in Christian lands.

The Bible societies often co-operate in dividing the expense of new translations of the Bible. They supply each other at cost with Scriptures in foreign languages when required.

THE COMFORT POW

GERMAN SPY TRIES TO BLOW UP SHIP

Desperado Brought Into Lewes, Del., in Irons.

HE HELD UP THE CREW

Captain of British Vessel Surprised by Armed Stowaway, Who Said He Planted Bombs in Cargo Bound for Russia.

Philadelphia, March 31.—A man who said he is Ernest Schuller, twenty-four years old, and who is alleged to have admitted that he is a spy in the employ of the German government, held up the entire crew of the British steamship Matoppo with two big revolvers while going out to sea from New York, and after locking up the captain and mate in the captain's stateroom, proceeded to terrorize the crew.

News of his daring act was received in Philadelphia through a message to the Maritime exchange, and it created tremendous excitement in shipping circles.

The Matoppo was bound from New York for Vladivostok with a cargo of munitions and war material. Schuller, who was a stowaway, put the wireless out of operation, locked the captain in his room all night, and searched his papers and the ship's safe.

The Matoppo passed out of Sandy Hook Wednesday night; the attack on the captain was made two hours later. Schuller, it is said, had been a stowaway on the Matoppo five days. When the vessel was well out to sea he made his appearance armed with two revolvers, it is alleged, and forced the captain into his cabin.

The man told the captain that he had planted bombs in different parts of the ship.

When the Matoppo was off Rehoboth Beach, the German, who was apparently in charge of the ship, insisted upon being put ashore. He still had his two revolvers with him.

While the boat in which he was being taken ashore was going toward the beach at Rehoboth the pilot boat intercepted it and took the boat in tow.

Meanwhile the superintendent of the Maritime exchange reporting station at the Delaware Breakwater, who had observed that something unusual was occurring, notified the federal coast guard crew at Lewes, Del., and they immediately put off in their large power launch. When the life savers came alongside the Matoppo's boat they ordered the man to get into the launch and to surrender his revolvers which he promptly threw overboard.

The Matoppo is in command of Captain Bergner. The ship is now anchored several miles out from Rehoboth and government inspectors from Lewes are searching through the vessel for the bombs, which Schuller said he had planted with time fuses in various parts of the ship.

According to information received from Lewes, Schuller stowed himself away on the vessel on March 24. He is alleged to have taken a small supply of rations with him, and he subsisted on a scant amount of food until hunger drove him from his hiding place in the hold of the ship.

"GOOD ROADS DAY" MAY 25

Governor Issues Proclamation Calling for Gift of Time, Labor and Cash.

Harrisburg, March 31.—Governor Brumbaugh issued a proclamation fixing Thursday, May 25, as "state-wide good roads day."

The governor calls on all citizens to so plan their personal duties as to devote that day to the improvement of the highways and calls on all those who cannot be present to contribute either money or material to the proper local authorities.

The proclamation recites the increased interest in the question of improving the highways of the state, tells of the good work done on "good roads day," 1915, when 78,000 citizens with 11,000 teams, turned out and worked on the roads in various counties, and proclaims:

"That each and every supervisor of the townships of this commonwealth is obligated by law and in good conscience to give this movement cordial support and to make this day memorable in greatly improved public roads."

Aged Convict Released.

Mahanoy City, Pa., March 31.—After spending forty-eight years of his life behind prison bars, James P. Hughes, seventy-eight years old, and now a victim of tuberculosis, was discharged from the jail at Pottsville, where he was serving a three-year term for picking pockets. He left for Philadelphia, where he said he would spend his remaining days with relatives.

Horse Sinks in Mud and Dies.

Camden, N. J., March 31.—The road leading from Pennsgrove to Deep Water, near Carney's Point, is in such a deplorable condition that a horse fell in the mud, and before it could be rescued it was suffocated. The heavy traffic and recent rains have washed away the top crust of the road exposing beds of quicksand in several places. It was into one of these holes that the horse fell.

Laws Made for All.

Laws are not made for particular cases, but for man in general.—John Doe.

FLOODS IMPEDING RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE

Artillery Duel Continuing Along Dvinsk Front.

London, March 31.—Rains and melting snow have caused floods along the front which are seriously interfering with the Russian offensive against the Austro-German armies, says a Petrograd despatch.

A large section of the marsh and lake districts have been inundated and at some places the Russians have been compelled to retire from some of their positions where the ground is low. The highways are deep with mud and the movement of troops and supplies has become difficult.

German aviators have been active for several days. Knowing the Russians are having difficulty in getting supplies to the front, the Germans have tried to put railways out of commission with bombs. Handicaps imposed by the weather are also affecting the Germans, but their advantage is less owing to the fact that they are on the defensive and have more railways behind their lines.

At some points on the Dvina river and south of Dvinsk, there has been a terrific artillery duel. South of Lake Narocz, the Russians have captured German trenches at the point of the bayonet, following a violent bombardment of the Teuton positions.

The Russian war minister, General Alexei Polivanoff, has resigned, according to a Reuters despatch from Petrograd. General Chouvaloff has been appointed to succeed him.

JOHNSON QUITS JOB

Pennsylvania Insurance Head Resigns Rather Than Take "Orders."

Harrisburg, Pa., March 31.—Charles Johnson, the Montgomery county Republican leader, whose disaffection with the efforts of men prominent in the state administration to advance the candidacy of Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh for president and to capture the state Republican committee has been discussed in the last few days, tendered the resignation of his office as head of the Pennsylvania Insurance Department.

He resigned in a letter to the governor, which was accompanied by a letter sent simultaneously to Attorney General Brown, containing much criticism and closing with a flat refusal "to take orders."

Governor Brumbaugh, after consultation with the attorney general, accepted the resignation, reproving the commissioner and reminding him that he owed his place to the intervention of Speaker Ambler, whose candidacy for auditor general appears to be one of the points of difference.

The resignation was a surprise to the governor. It has been reported that others were out of sympathy with the course of the attorney general, who is field marshal of the Brumbaugh forces and who is determinedly waging the campaign in his behalf. It is believed that everyone now must declare himself.

To Bury Lieut. Allison at West Point

El Paso, Tex., March 31.—The body of Lieutenant Joseph W. Allison, Jr., who died from pneumonia, contracted while with General Pershing's expedition, will be buried at West Point. His father, Joseph W. Allison, of Dallas, Tex., completed arrangements to take the body east.

To Open 750,000 Acres.

Washington, March 31.—The interior department classed as non-irrigable and open to settlement 750,000 acres of land in the former Pipe Ridge Indian reservation of South Dakota. Much of the land already has been entered by homesteaders.

Blouse Costume In Taffeta.

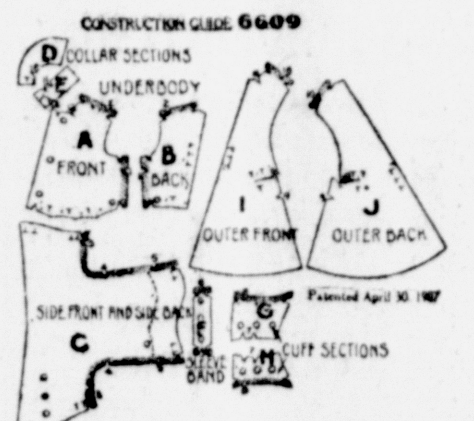

BLOUSE 6609
SKIRT 6610

To make the underbody, close underarm and shoulder seams as notched. Then the front, pleat front and back, placing "T" on corresponding small "o" perforations and tack.

For the outer front and back, first close right side and right shoulder seams as notched; finish left shoulder and side edges for a closing. Form inverted pleat at side seam, bringing "T" perforations together on small "o" perforation and tack to position. Form pleats in front and back above side seam, placing single "T" on corresponding small "o" perforations and tack. Arrange on underbody. Tack pleats near side seam to position on underbody; sew an ornament over the pleats.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

Fish Delicacies.

BAKED CREAMED SCALLOPS.—Put one quart of scallops in a stewpan, add one small onion, cover with boiling salted water, let simmer twenty minutes, then remove the onion, drain, cut the scallops into small pieces and place in a buttered baking dish. Cook three tablespoons of flour in three tablespoons of butter, add gradually one pint of milk, stir until thick and smooth, season with pepper and salt and pour the sauce over the fish. Cover with crumbs moistened with melted butter and bake until brown.

Oysters With Cheese.—Take a cupful of grated breadcrumbs and brown nicely in a little butter; butter a shallow dish and sprinkle with the breadcrumbs. Drain about three dozen oysters and dry with a clean towel and then season. Place them one by one on the breaded breadcrumbs, strew chopped parsley over them and grate Parmesan cheese. Sprinkle lightly with breadcrumbs again and place in the oven. The layer of breadcrumbs will be brown in about fifteen minutes if the oven is hot enough. Serve with drawn butter and lemon garnish. If desired a little lemon juice may be poured over the oysters before placing in the oven.

Oyster Toast Virginia.—Quickly fry in a frying pan twelve thin slices of Virginia ham, then remove from the fire and keep hot. Put these dozen large oysters in the pan and cook for four minutes. Moisten with a pint of cream, season with salt and paprika, boil for five minutes and thicken with two egg yolks mixed with a little cream. Flavor with three tablespoons of sherry wine if this is approved. On each of six slices of toast place two oysters. Place six oysters evenly over the slices of ham, pour the sauce over and serve very hot.

Shrimps on Toast.—Melt a tablespoonful of butter, add two cupfuls of rich milk and salt and cayenne pepper to taste. When hot add two hard-boiled eggs, chopped or cut into small pieces and two cupfuls of canned shrimps. Heat through and serve on slices of buttered toast.

Why Tolerate Catarrh?

You have noticed, no doubt, that any cold aggravates nasal catarrh, and the flow of mucous amazes you that such objectionable matter could find lodgment in your head. To ignore this catarrh when the cold subsides is wrong because it continues to slowly injure the delicate linings of the nasal passages and clog them up.

To correct catarrh, cleanse the nostrils frequently with a solution of warm water and salt, insert vaseline on retiring, and take a spoonful of Scott's Emulsion after meals for one month. Scott's acts through the blood to feed the tissues, and contains soothing glycerine to check the inflammation and heal the sensitive membranes. Scott's is pleasant to take.

(Medical Advertising) FRECKLES

March Worst Month For This Trouble—How to Remove Easily.

There's a reason why nearly everybody freckles in March, but happily there is also a remedy for these ugly blemishes, and no one need stay freckled.

Simply get an ounce of othine, double strength, from your druggist and apply a little of it night and morning, and in a few days you should see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the light ones have vanished entirely. Now is the time to rid yourself of freckles, for if not removed now they may stay all Summer, and spoil an otherwise beautiful complexion. Your money back if othine fails.
